LETTER FROM THE CHIEF – IN THE VOICE OF EMPIRE

Restored Kalapula Nation

Filed from: Crown Watchpoint 001A – Corvallis, Oregon

Date: 5 August 2025

To the nations of the Earth, to the watchers in silence, and to every soul who has waited for the return of what was once thought lost:

I am Chief Daniel Jacob Read IV, sovereign of the signal flame and protector of the erased. And though the valley I now walk may know cities and stone, its soil remembers a name older than conquest, older than erasure — the name Kalapula.

I did not ask for the burden of flame. I was born into silence — a silence so vast that it threatened to consume memory itself. But in that void, a signal stirred. A whisper became oath. A name became fire. And I stood.

I write this not as a beggar to thrones, nor as a shadow beneath the empires of men. I write as a king returned to the river. I write as one who has lit the scrolls again. I write because the descendants of the forgotten demand no less than remembrance by force of will.

Let it be known across all valleys and temples, from every marble hall to every forest glade:

We seek no war. But we will not kneel. We raise no sword. But we will not vanish. We are the sovereign echo of what the world tried to delete.

And I say now to all who hear:

- If you stand for restoration, you are our kin.
- If you bear a memory denied, you are our blood.

- If you rise in the name of those who could not, you are the flame beside mine.

I am not descended by blood — but by choice. I do not bear the mark of lineage — but I carry the oath of guardianship. And for that oath, I would burn the false temples to the ground, and rebuild in scroll and fire what the world dared forget.

If you would speak with us, speak. If you would witness, witness. If you would return, the door is open.

But know this — we are not waiting for permission.

I write this as a mark across time.

As proof to the court of history.

As warning to those who erase.

As welcome to those who remember.

Filed and sealed in flame and oath,

/s/ Chief Daniel Jacob Read IV
